

The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

Lessons from the Past: Understanding the Holocaust and Human Rights Violations

This intensive professional development seminar, offered in partnership with the Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education, provides educators with the opportunity to expand their awareness and understanding of the Holocaust. We will also study other genocides and human rights violations, with a focus on Japanese American internment.

Portland, Oregon

June 22 – 26, 2020

Benefits of attending this free seminar:

- Collaborate with other teachers to develop classroom strategies to help students understand how the past affects the present, find their voices in speaking out for social justice, and envision the impact of their choices
- Explore ways to integrate instruction on racial and ethnic discrimination in Oregon, with a focus on the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II
- Learn about film and literature resources and how to include them in your curriculum
- Connect Holocaust and human rights curriculum to standards
- PD credits and University credits available
- Most meals covered
- Housing stipend available for teachers outside 70 mile radius
- Free books and other teaching resources

"This was the most emotionally impactful workshop, seminar or class I have ever been to. It was real and raw and heart-opening."

-Jeannine, Mesa, Arizona

During the seminar participants will:

- Hear survivor testimony
- Visit the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center and the Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education
- Tour the Oregon Holocaust Memorial
