

The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

A Multi-Generational Approach to Holocaust and Social Justice Education

A five and a half day seminar for teachers to learn and create pedagogically sound lessons for Holocaust and Social Justice education.

July 16-21, 2018 Congregation Shalom, Fox Point, WI

“...one of the best opportunities for professional development ever!”

2017 Wisconsin Seminar participant

SPEAKERS WILL INCLUDE:

Dr. Shay Pilnik on how the Holocaust began

Nathan Taffel on surviving the Holocaust

Elaine Culbertson on the importance of artifacts in Holocaust education

Yid Vicious on the history of Klezmer music in Jewish culture

AND more...

Participants receive:

- Copies of Holocaust-related books
- Most meals
- Echoes and Reflections curriculum
- Admission to Milwaukee Jewish Museum and Illinois Holocaust Memorial Museum
- Subsidized lodging for commuters (limited number available)

AND much more at NO COST!

2017 seminar participants with Nate Taffel, local Holocaust survivor, and his wife, Muriel, at Congregation Shalom.

Seminar led by:

Scott Lone, West Bend High Schools

scottelone@gmail.com

and

Lori Menning, New London High School

holalori2010@gmail.com

Contact us with questions!

“I am a better teacher, learner, and person because of this seminar!”

2017 Wisconsin Seminar participant

APPLY NOW!

www.toli.us/satellite-program/wisconsin/