

The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

Cultural Crossroads: The Holocaust and Cultural Identity

An Inquiry into Teaching for Human Rights

San Diego, CA

June 25-29, 2018

Seminar Description

Held at the High Tech High Graduate School of Education in San Diego, CA, Cultural Crossroads is a thematic seminar that interweaves content related to both the Holocaust and present-day experiences of intolerance and persecution. The seminar is inquiry-based, inviting teachers to acknowledge and incorporate the culture of their students into their curriculum and the broader classroom experience. The program takes a writing-based approach to Holocaust and social justice education.

Learning Experiences include:

Testimony from a Holocaust survivor

Speakers from Facing History and Ourselves, Echoes and Reflections, and the USC Shoah Foundation

Visits to the New Americans Museum, Museum of Man, Border Field State Park, and Chicano Park

Shabbat Service, Dinner, Klezmer Performance

...and much more

Facilitated by San Marcos Writing Project Fellows:

- Michelle Sadrena Clark, Center for Research on Equity and Innovation
- Jennifer Howard, High Tech High North County

Educators receive:

- High-quality professional development at NO COST
- Free admission to all field trips
- All workshop materials
- Most meals
- Option of three units of graduate credit for $100/unit
- Parking

Apply Now!

<https://www.toli.us/satellite-program/san-diego/>

