

The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

A Multi-Generational Approach to Holocaust and Social Justice Education

A six day seminar for teachers to learn and create pedagogically sound lessons for Holocaust and Social Justice education

July 28 – August 2, 2019

Fox Point, Wisconsin

"I've learned so much about myself through this experience. I have learned about myself as an educator, as a parent, as a member of the Jewish community, and most importantly, as a human and my role in this world."

2018 Wisconsin Seminar participant

The Wisconsin satellite seminar is designed for teachers who seek to deepen their content knowledge and explore best practices in Holocaust education. Participants hear testimony from two survivors and presentations on Jewish history and contemporary Jewish life.

The seminar includes a visit to the Illinois Holocaust Memorial Museum and Education Center in Skokie, Illinois and the Milwaukee Jewish Museum.

This grant-funded seminar is offered free of charge. Most meals are provided, and participants will receive selected materials. Participants coming from more than 40 miles away are eligible for a housing stipend on a first come, first served basis.

To reserve your place, go to www.toli.us/satellite-program/wisconsin

A valid credit card is required for a good faith deposit of $50. Your credit card will only be charged if you cancel less than 2 weeks before the seminar begins or withdraw without notice.

2018 seminar participants with Nate Taffel, local Holocaust survivor, and his wife, Muriel, at Congregation Shalom

Seminar Facilitators are part of the TOLI Leadership Program:

- Scott Lone is a US Holocaust Memorial Museum Fellow and teaches at West Bend East High School in West Bend, Wisconsin
- Lori Menning leads professional development workshops at the state and national levels as an EL Bilingual/Bicultural Consultant for CESA 6 in Oshkosh, Wisconsin

For more information, email:
scottelone@gmail.com or holalori2010@gmail.com

"The amount of resources given to us during the week was most beneficial as I now have additional items and tools to utilize within my classroom."

2018 Wisconsin Seminar participant