

The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

Holocaust and Civil Rights Education for Wisconsin Classrooms

A six-day seminar where teachers learn to create pedagogically sound lessons for Holocaust and Civil Rights education

Fox Point, Wisconsin

August 2-7, 2020

“This is easily the most meaningful, impactful, and important professional development I have ever done. What is more real, more current, or more urgent than understanding and helping to eradicate hate among our students?”

- Leah, West Bend, WI

Held at Congregation Shalom in Fox Point, the seminar is designed for teachers who seek to deepen their content knowledge and explore best practices in Holocaust education and the civil rights movement in Wisconsin. Participants will hear survivor testimony, learn about antisemitism and Jewish culture, and explore how the civil rights movement impacted Wisconsin's history.

This seminar will include visits to the Illinois Holocaust Memorial Museum and the Black Holocaust Museum in Milwaukee.

This seminar is offered FREE to educators through the generous support of TOLI and our partners and includes:

- Most meals
- For teachers traveling more than 45 miles, the opportunity to be housed free with a Jewish family from the Milwaukee community
- A wealth of classroom resources

To reserve your place, go to www.toli.us/satellite-program/wisconsin

A valid credit card is required for a good faith deposit of $100. Your credit card will only be charged if you cancel less than 2 weeks before the seminar begins or withdraw without notice.

Wisconsin TOLI teachers meet David Dragon, a survivor of the Dachau Concentration Camp.

Seminar facilitators are part of the TOLI Leadership Program:

Scott Lone is a US Holocaust Memorial Museum Fellow and has taught at West Bend High School in West Bend, Wisconsin for 21 years.

Amber Tilley has taught ELA for 22 years, the majority of which have been at Northland Pines High School in Eagle River, Wisconsin. Her study of the Holocaust has taken her to Europe to visit Holocaust and to Israel to study at Yad Vashem.

Please contact Scott and Amber at toliwisconsin@gmail.com with questions.

“This seminar was by far the best professional development I have attended. I felt my time, presence, and thoughts were valued and the work we did was important.”

- Tess, West Bend, WI
