

Inaugural Wisconsin Holocaust Educators Network Seminar Milwaukee, Wisconsin

July 31 – August 5, 2017

A MULTI-GENERATIONAL APPROACH TO HOLOCAUST AND SOCIAL JUSTICE EDUCATION

A weeklong seminar for teachers to learn and work together to create pedagogically sound lessons centered around the Holocaust and other social justice topics

Led by:

Scott Lone, West Bend High Schools

&

Lori Menning, New London High School

Featured Speakers

- * Dr. Shay Pilnik: History of the Holocaust
- * Nathan Taffel: Child Survivor of the Holocaust
- * Elaine Culbertson: Importance of Artifacts in Holocaust Education
- * Jill Rembrandt: Echoes & Reflections Curriculum

Participants receive free:

- Copies of select Holocaust related books
- Most meals
- Echoes and Reflections curriculum
- Trip to the Illinois Holocaust Memorial Museum & a local synagogue

Participants are eligible for:

- 2 or 3 graduate credits through UW-Oshkosh (additional cost and outside work)
- Classroom grants for up to $1000
- Professional development hours

Participants are expected to:

- Complete pre-seminar readings and engage in on-line discussions
- Attend scheduled sessions
- Fully participate in planned activities
- Complete reflective writing assignments
- Create an action plan to take back to your school

For More Information:

Scott Lone, scottelone@gmail.com

Lori Menning, holalori2010@gmail.com

Apply Now!

<https://www.thememoriallibrary.org/wisconsin-application/>

