At the Crossroads: Navigating the Holocaust in Indiana's Classrooms

An Interdisciplinary Inquiry on Teaching the Holocaust

Ligonier, Indiana

June 14 – 18, 2021

COVID-19 Notice: All in-person events will follow the most current local COVID guidelines including rescheduling if dictated by state/county regulations.

Ahavath Sholom Synagogue in Ligonier, IN

The seminar is facilitated by Ashley Libben, a teacher at West Noble Middle School, and Sarah Wilson, the Curriculum Director at West Noble School Corporation.

Each day of the Indiana Summer Seminar will introduce new perspectives on our theme. As we collaborate, write, and reflect, educators will experience concrete ways to bring their learning back to their students. Seminar highlights include:

- Best Practices in Holocaust & Social Justice Education
- Writing as a Tool for Professional Growth
- Sessions with Holocaust Education Experts
- Survivor Testimony
- Effective Methods for Meeting the Indiana Mandate to teach about the Holocaust

This seminar is offered FREE to educators thanks to the generous support of TOLI and our partners. Participants will receive:

- Selected books and teaching materials
- $100 stipend
- Most meals
- Expenses paid for special events
- An opportunity to join an international network of Holocaust educators and apply for TOLI mini-grants

Please note: a valid credit card is required for a good faith deposit of $100. Your credit card will only be charged if you cancel less than 2 weeks before the seminar begins or withdraw without notice.
