

The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

Lessons from the Past: Understanding the Holocaust and Human Rights Violations

This intensive professional development seminar, offered in partnership with the Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education, provides educators with the opportunity to expand their awareness and understanding of the Holocaust. We will also study other genocides and human rights violations, with a focus on Japanese American internment.

Portland, Oregon

August 2 – 6, 2021

COVID-19 Notice: All in-person events will follow the most current local COVID guidelines including rescheduling if dictated by state/county regulations.

Limited space available

Applications accepted on a rolling basis

Questions? Contact seminar leaders

Carrie McCallum: carrie_nobert@hotmail.com or

Rob Hadley: hadleys67@msn.com

For more information and to apply, please visit

https://www.toli.us/satellite-program/oregon/

The seminar is facilitated by Carrie McCallum, St. Helens High School, and Robert Hadley, Educators
Rising

Benefits of attending this free seminar:

- Collaborate with other teachers to develop classroom strategies to help students understand how the past affects the present, find their voices in speaking out for social justice, and envision the impact of their choices
- Explore ways to integrate instruction on racial and ethnic discrimination in Oregon, with a focus on the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II
- Learn about film and literature resources and how to include them in your curriculum
- Connect Holocaust and human rights curriculum to standards
- PD credits and University credits available
- Most meals covered
- Housing stipend available for teachers outside 70-mile radius
- Free books and other teaching resources
- Learn effective methods for meeting the Oregon mandate to teach about the Holocaust

During the seminar participants will:

Hear survivor testimony

Visit the Japanese American Museum of Oregon and the Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education

Tour the Oregon Holocaust Memorial

Visit a local synagogue

Please note: A valid credit card is required for a good faith deposit of $100. Your credit card will only be charged if you cancel less than 2 weeks before the seminar begins or withdraw without notice.

OREGON JEWISH MUSEUM AND CENTER FOR HOLOCAUST EDUCATION

JAPANESE AMERICAN
MUSEUM OF OREGON