

® The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

An Interdisciplinary Inquiry on Teaching the Holocaust

Looking Toward the Future: Bringing Lessons of the Holocaust to the Gulf South

Baton Rouge, Louisiana

July 24-29, 2022

National WWII Museum, New Orleans

Please contact Penny Kinchen at pkinchen@centralprivate.org with any questions

This professional development seminar is offered at no cost to educators* through the generous support of TOLI and our partners. All participants will receive:

- Meals and snacks most days
- Books and teaching materials
- Professional development hours
- Limited housing subsidies available for out-of-town participants. Contact Penny Kinchen for more information
- Access to a large, involved network of Human Rights educators

*A valid credit card is required for a good faith deposit of $50 to secure your spot. You will only be charged if you cancel less than 2 weeks before the seminar or withdraw without notice

Looking Toward the Future is a seminar for educators at all levels desiring to deepen their understanding of the Holocaust. Through this investigative seminar, attendees will be challenged to think about ways to promote human rights and social justice in their classrooms.

Seminar highlights include:

- Interactive workshops with experienced educators on curriculum design and best teaching practices for sharing the lessons of the Holocaust with young people today
- Guest speakers, including professional artist, Angel McGee
- Holocaust survivor testimony
- Site visits, including the National WWII Museum in New Orleans
- Shabbat service at a local synagogue
- Introduction to the Echoes and Reflections Curriculum

The seminar is facilitated by Penny Kinchen, English Department Chair at Central Private School in Baton Rouge, and Amber Tilley, English Language Arts teacher at Northland Pines High School in Wisconsin

REGISTER HERE

www.toli.us/satellite-program/louisiana/

COVID-19 NOTICE: All in-person events will follow the most current local COVID guidelines, including rescheduling if dictated by state/county regulations.