

The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

Holocaust and Civil Rights Education for Wisconsin Classrooms

A six-day seminar where teachers learn to create pedagogically sound lessons for Holocaust and Civil Rights education

Fox Point, Wisconsin

July 10-15, 2022

"I would tell other teachers how informative and powerful this seminar was, and how helpful the resources we received are. Seminar teachers received SO many amazing resources that I cannot wait to dig into each one and plan how to use it in my classroom. I have been so inspired to make changes to my classroom teaching because of this seminar."

- 2021 Participant

Held at Congregation Shalom in Fox Point, the seminar is designed for teachers who seek to deepen their content knowledge and explore best practices in Holocaust education and the civil rights movement in Wisconsin. Participants will hear survivor testimony, learn about antisemitism and Jewish culture, and explore how the civil rights movement impacted Wisconsin's history.

This seminar will include visits to the Illinois Holocaust Memorial Museum and the Black Holocaust Museum in Milwaukee.

This seminar is offered FREE to educators through the generous support of TOLI and our partners and includes:

- Most meals
- A wealth of classroom resources
- Eligibility for mini grants of up to $1,000 through TOLI for future Holocaust and social justice-related classroom experiences and materials

To reserve your place, go to www.toli.us/satellite-program/wisconsin

HARRI
HOFFMANN
FAMILY
FOUNDATION INC.

Wisconsin TOLI teachers meet Doris Fogel, survivor of the Shanghai Ghetto.

Seminar facilitators are part of the TOLI Leadership Program:

Scott Lone is a US Holocaust Memorial Museum Fellow and taught high school social studies for 25 years, spending the last 23 years at West Bend High School in West Bend. Scott has traveled to Austria, Germany, Poland and Israel as a student of the Holocaust

Amber Tilley has taught ELA for 22 years, the majority of which have been at Northland Pines High School in Eagle River, Wisconsin. Her study of the Holocaust has taken her to Europe to visit Holocaust sites and to Israel to study at Yad Vashem.

Please contact Scott and Amber at toliwisconsin@gmail.com with questions.

"This seminar was by far the best professional development I have attended. I felt my time, presence, and thoughts were valued and the work we did was important."

- 2020 Participant

*A valid credit card is required for a good faith deposit of $100. Your credit card will only be charged if you cancel less than 2 weeks before the seminar or withdraw without notice.

COVID-19 NOTICE: All in-person events will follow the most current local COVID guidelines, including rescheduling if dictated by state/county regulations.