

Teaching in Troubled Times: An Interdisciplinary Inquiry into Teaching about the Holocaust and Human Rights

The Olga Lengyel Institute for Holocaust Studies and Human Rights

New York City, July 5th – 16th, 2022

Are you a Holocaust educator? A human rights advocate?
Do you teach for and about racial equity and social justice?

If so, we invite you to apply to TOLI's 10-day inquiry on teaching about the Holocaust and human rights at a time when increasing injustice across the United States reminds us that 'Never Again' begins in the classroom.

Our 2022 seminar offers an intensive focus on the Holocaust and its resonance for understanding agonized histories within the US, both past and present.

Together, we will ask:

- What happens when educators join in conversation to examine the roots of intolerance? Of antisemitism and racism?
- How might our perspectives change? How would we enlarge our understanding of ancient and contemporary hatreds?
- What actions might we be inspired to take in our classrooms and our communities?

Seminar leaders:

Dr. Sondra Perl, author of On Austrian Soil: Teaching Those I Was Taught to Hate

Dr. Jennifer Lemberg, co-editor of Becoming a Holocaust Educator: Purposeful Pedagogy Through Inquiry

Participants receive:

Free housing at Columbia University / Round-trip airfare to NYC / $350 stipend and selected books / Membership in our network of talented educators

"Invaluable, immeasurable, life-changing. . ."

"The most worthwhile and connected professional development I have ever had." "This seminar was truly educational and. . . deeply transformative. . . I learned more than I could ever have imagined."

--Past participants in the seminar in New York City

WITH PRESENTATIONS BY SCHOLARS AND TEACHER LEADERS IN THE TOLI NETWORK, INCLUDING:

Brenda Johnston
on Blackfeet history and perspective

Dr. Shanedra Nowell
on the Tulsa Race Massacre

Dr. Michelle Sadrena Pledger on liberatory pedagogy

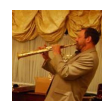

Lacy Watson
on remembrance, resilience, and resistance

Tracei Willis
on racialized trauma

TESTIMONY FROM
Dr. Irene Hasenberg Butter,
Holocaust survivor

AND FEATURING A KLEZMER PERFORMANCE
by Rabbi Greg Wall

The Premier Association of Financial Professionals®

For detailed information visit www.tolinstitute.org

Apply here

Online applications are due March 20, 2022