and Healing through Holocaust, Indigenous and
Japanese-American Histories

June 1-6, 2026
Boise, Idaho

About TOLI Seminars

TOLI is regarded as a leader in providing professional learning seminars for educators on best practices to teach about the Holocaust and human rights. Seminars, including most meals, are provided at no cost to educators.

Participants become part of TOLI's international learning community and are provided with year-round mentoring, programs, and resources.

Who Should Attend

- Middle and High School Teachers from all disciplines – especially social studies, history, and English/language arts
- College Faculty
- Those who seek to deepen their knowledge, skills, and confidence to teach challenging content

**Credits available through Boise State University*

Program Benefits

- Experience powerful, place-based learning through a visit to the Wassmuth Center and other historic and religious sites that deepen cultural understanding
- Learn directly from survivors through their moving testimonies
- Gain practical, classroom-ready strategies to foster empathy and historical understanding
- Strengthen your teaching through collaboration, exploring best practices and tackling real classroom challenges alongside fellow educators in a small, supportive learning community

About The Program

This five-day seminar provides an experiential pedagogy to explore histories of persecution and resilience. Participants will learn from scholars and cultural leaders in an intimate, supportive environment to deepen skills to guide students to consider choices, responsibility, and community.

Seminar Facilitators

Paul Regelbrugge is the Director of Education at the Holocaust Center for Humanity in Seattle, and an experienced national TOLI facilitator. M. Lacy Watson has taught English Language Arts in Billings, Montana since 2011 and has been a TOLI facilitator since 2017. Read their full biographies on our website below:
