

Holocaust Education:

From Classroom Inquiry to Informed Action

July 6-11, 2026
Farmington Hills, Michigan

HOLOCAUST EDUCATION FOR SCHOOL AND COLLEGE

About TOLI Seminars

TOLI is regarded as a leader in providing professional learning seminars for educators on best practices to teach about the Holocaust and human rights. Seminars, including most meals, are provided at no cost to educators.

Participants become part of TOLI's international learning community and are provided with year-round mentoring, programs, and resources.

Who Should Attend

- Middle and High School Teachers from all disciplines – especially social studies, history, and English/language arts
- College Faculty
- Those who seek to deepen their knowledge, skills, and confidence to teach challenging content

Program Benefits

- Learn onsite at the Zekelman Holocaust Center, a world-class museum and memorial in Farmington Hills.
- Gain practical, classroom-ready strategies grounded in inquiry and best practice for navigating challenging content with confidence.
- Engage with primary sources, artifacts, and museum collections to deepen historical understanding.
- Collaborate with a supportive community of educators.
- Earn 35 Michigan SCECH credits while advancing your teaching practice.

About the Program

Participants in our seminar approach the Holocaust as both teacher and student for deep inquiry and powerful professional development in Michigan's world-class Holocaust museum. Sessions build on big questions and enduring content, explore museum resources and classroom strategies, and always consider students, history, human rights, and opportunities for informed action.
