Dakota Exile, and Minnesota's
Tribal Nations

August 4-8, 2026
Plymouth, Minnesota

About TOLI Seminars

TOLI is regarded as a leader in providing professional learning seminars for educators on best practices to teach about the Holocaust and human rights. Seminars, including most meals, are provided at no cost to educators.

Participants become part of TOLI's international learning community and are provided with year-round mentoring, programs, and resources.

Who Should Attend

- Middle and High School Teachers from all disciplines – especially social studies, history, and English/language arts
- College Faculty
- Those who seek to deepen their knowledge, skills, and confidence to teach challenging content

Program Benefits

- Experience immersive field trips to significant Indigenous sites
- Gain insight into Indigenous foodways and cultural revitalization
- Learn about the history, religion, and culture of the Jewish people and attend a synagogue Sabbath service
- Hear powerful Holocaust family testimony
- Earn 60 Continuing Education Units (CEUs)
- Earn 2-3 Graduate credits from St. Cloud State University

About the Program

Participants will deepen their knowledge and confidence in how to teach about the Holocaust, Minnesota's Tribal Nations, and human rights through engaging speakers, meaningful field trips, primary sources, and reflective dialogue. The seminar explores the Holocaust, the Dakota Exile, and Indian Boarding Schools, highlighting the resilience of Jewish and Indigenous peoples.
