

We Remember:

Exploring the Holocaust and Antisemitism

A Seminar for Catholic School Educators

July 21-25, 2026
New York, New York

About TOLI Seminars

TOLI is regarded as a leader in providing professional learning seminars for educators on best practices for teaching the Holocaust. Seminars, including most meals, are provided at no cost to educators and some travel stipends may be available.

Participants become part of TOLI's international learning community and are provided with year-round mentoring, programs, and resources.

Who Should Attend

- Catholic school middle and high school teachers from all disciplines - especially theology and religion, social studies, history, fine arts, and English/language arts
- Catholic college faculty and campus ministry

Program Benefits

- Study the history of Catholic-Jewish relations with internationally recognized interfaith leaders, Father Dennis McManus and Rabbi David Fox Sandmel
- Learn best practices in Holocaust pedagogy to engage students in challenging and complex content
- Participate in field trips to the Museum of Jewish Heritage, St. Patrick's Cathedral, and attend Sabbath services in a synagogue
- Collaborate with a supportive learning community to problem-solve real classroom challenges

Seminar Facilitators

Corey Harbaugh is a retired school curriculum administrator and serves as Faculty Advisor for TOLI and Curriculum Specialist for the Anne Frank Center at the University of South Carolina. Donna Tarney is the Education Specialist for the Anne Frank Center at the University of South Carolina. Brendan Murphy is the founding director of the Bearing Witness Institute for Interreligious and Ecumenical Dialogue at Marist School, Atlanta.
