

Merging Histories and Complex Narratives:

Holocaust and Genocide
Education through Dialogue,
Storytelling, and Classroom
Practice

August 3-8, 2026
Los Angeles, California

Seminar to be held at the Simon Wiesenthal Museums of Tolerance

About TOLI Seminars

TOLI is regarded as a leader in providing professional learning seminars for educators on best practices to teach about the Holocaust and human rights. Seminars, including most meals, are provided at no cost to educators.

Participants become part of TOLI's international learning community and are provided with year-round mentoring, programs, and resources.

Who Should Attend

- Open to California K-12 educators, with a focus on middle and high school teachers
- Open to educators of all disciplines, especially social studies, history, English/language arts, and art

Travel and hotel accommodations are fully covered through grant funding for California K-12 educators located 50+ miles from the Museum of Tolerance.

Program Benefits

- Aligned to help educators navigate CA learning standards and mandates
- Experience powerful, place-based education at the Museum of Tolerance (Los Angeles)
- Gain practical, classroom-ready strategies to foster accurate historical understanding
- Strengthen your teaching through collaboration, exploration of best practices, and by becoming part of a small, supportive professional learning community

About The Program

This five-day, in-person seminar specifically designed for California K-12 educators uses inquiry-based practices as the foundation for exploring the content of Holocaust, genocide, and human rights as both students and teachers of those histories. Participants engage in in-depth learning with the powerful exhibits and pedagogical principles of the Museum of Tolerance to develop practical strategies for teaching complex histories with confidence and care.

Seminar Facilitators

Corey Harbaugh is a retired school curriculum administrator and serves as Faculty Advisor for TOLI and Curriculum Specialist for the Anne Frank Center at the University of South Carolina. Paul Regelbrugge is the Director of Education at the Holocaust Center for Humanity in Seattle, and an experienced national TOLI facilitator. Read their full biographies on our website below:

Please complete our form via the "Apply Here" button

APPLY ONLINE ↙

AT TOLI.US/REGIONAL-PROGRAM/CALIFORNIA

Questions? Contact Corey at charbaugh@tolinstitute.org